Hellspawn Hotsauce

The Hellspawn Hotsauce project was a logo design for a fictional hotsauce brand. The logo is an illustration of a "hell-spawn" wrapped in swaddling clothes, with a hotsauce cap as a soother.

Xanthis Photography

The Xanthis Photography project was a logo designed for a photography student of Georgian College, Sophia Xanthis. The logo is designed to be "Classy & Light" as Sophia's brand is self described.
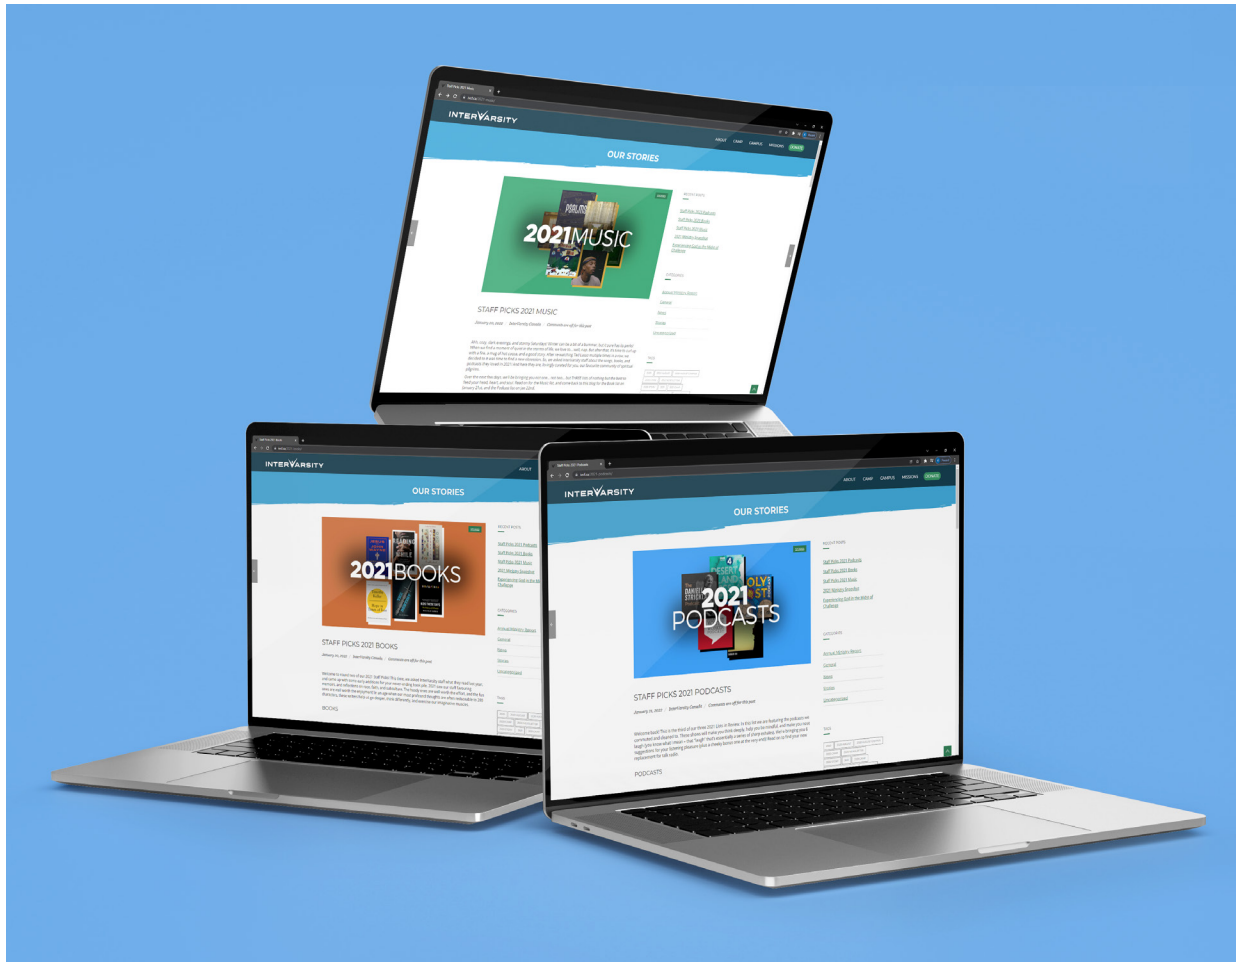

Nintendo Pichu Controller

This project was to convert a raster image to a vector image using the Adobe Illustrator Mesh, Pen, and Gradient tools
